

Seeds of The Spirit

When Mommy hugs me nice and tight
she plants a seed of love.

She wants me to know she loves me so just like God above.

When Mommy runs and plays with me,
she plants a seed of joy.

It's so much fun to play a game
or with my favorite toy.

When I'm scared I call Mommy and
She brings a seed of peace.

She takes me in her loving arms,
my fears she helps release.

When Mommy says no cookies now,
a seed of patience she does sow.

She knows what is good for me,
and how to help me grow.

When Mommy helps me clean my room,
she plants a seed so kind.

She knows I want to hurry up,
playing's on my mind!

Mommy makes my favorite foods
and plants a seed so good.

It makes me clean my whole plate
just like she says I should.

When Mommy takes care of me everyday
a faithful seed she plants.

She feeds me, bathes me, cleans my clothes
so I always have clean pants.

Every night Mommy prays with me
she plants a gentle seed.

Then she tucks me in and asks
what Bible story we should read.

Mommy tells me to behave myself
and plants seeds of self-control.

She knows that Jesus wants me to do what I am told.

The greatest thing she's planting in me
is the seed of Jesus's love.

Because of her I know that He's watching me from above.

Happy Mother's Day!
